

Bibliography

1. Worksheet Controlled assessment, General William Westmoreland commander of US Forces, Vietnam
2. From 'Naked In Da Nang' written by Mike Jackson and Tara Dixon
3. CIA report commenting on bombing of North Vietnam, 1966
4. CIA document 1965 about damage from one air strike in North Vietnam
5. Front Cover of 'Life Magazine', 7 April 1967
6. A modern historian commenting on the Strategic Hamlet Programme, R. Corbett 1986
7. A modern historian commenting on the Strategic Hamlet Programme, N. Sheehan 1990
8. Varnado Simpson, one of the members of Charlie Company and My Lai, describes his experience in Vietnam 1989
9. Vietnam 1939-75 Textbook
10. Vietnam 1939-75 Textbook
11. Worksheet Controlled assessment, Philip Caputo, US Marine
12. James Duffy, a machine gunner on a Chinook helicopter
13. Controlled Assessment Textbook, a description of a typical Search and Destroy mission from The Vietnam War
14. One soldier wrote to his parents in April 1967 about American treatment of Vietnamese civilians
15. A Vietnam veteran on why the United States lost the war 1981
16. Worksheet Controlled Assessment, a ten year old Vietnamese girl runs naked after tearing her burning clothes from her body following a napalm attack
17. Controlled Assessment Textbook, US plan spreading defoliant
18. Worksheet Controlled Assessment, text of a TV report by a journalist on patrol with US marines in the Mekong Delta in 1969
19. An historian on why the United States lost the war, V. Sanders 2002
20. An historian on why the United States lost the war, R. Corbett 1986
21. Worksheet Controlled Assessment, Lieutenant Colonel George Forrest, US Army
22. Vietnam 1939-75 Textbook, a dead NVA soldier
23. Worksheet Controlled Assessment, an American commenting on US policy failure in Vietnam
24. Worksheet controlled assessment, Philip Caputo, a lieutenant in the Marine Corps in Vietnam in 1965-66, speaking in 1997
25. Trinh Duc, a Vietnamese Communist, describes the tactics he experienced, 1996
26. Eric Durschmied's book, Don't shoot the Yanqui', 1990
27. Controlled Assessment textbook, a map of the Ho Chi Minh Trail
28. Erik Durschmied's book, Don't shoot the Yanqui', 1990
29. The Vietnam Experience 1965-75 Volume I, Equipment was airlifted by H-21 helicopter then off-loaded with the help of several elephants